

SOPHIA'S DAUGHTER

ABOUT

Sophia's Daughter is a Caribbean-American trained performance artist, actress, writer, and creative producer based in the Black Mecca of Newark, NJ. Her purpose is anchored by her undying love and support of Haiti, Black Women, humanity, and the Indigenous Diaspora.

She is driven by her motivation to encourage others, foster empathy, and express healing and strength through theatre, live music, and poetry, while hoping to bring humanity closer to its roots.
